This year, give presents that promise presence

They may look like tangible objects wrapped in boxes and bags, but the best gifts always offer a promise from the heart.

One particularly powerful promise in this hectic, media-saturated era is the promise of presence—the gift of being truly seen and heard and feeling loved.

All of us crave this kind of connection, which is why every gift in this guide offers practical and powerful ways to help your loved ones connect to God and others during the months to come.

Whether it's with a story at bedtime, over lunch with a devotional, or while making plans for the week, these gifts will transform your loved ones' ordinary moments into invitations to be present with Jesus all year.

into a deep sleep. While the man slept, the LORD LORD God asked, "Have you eaten from the tree a woman from the rib, and he brought her to gave me who gave me the fruit, and I ate it."

23 "At last!" the man exclaimed.

"This one is bone from my bone, and flesh from my flesh! She will be called 'woman,' because she was taken from 'man.'"

24 This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.

25 Now the man and his wife were both naked,

but they felt no shame.

The Man and Woman Sin

3 The serpent was the shrewdest of all the wild animals the Lord God had made. One day he asked the woman, "Did God really say you must not eat the fruit from any of the trees n the garden?"

2 "Of course we may eat fruit from the trees in the garden," the woman replied. 3 "It's only the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden that we are not allowed to eat. God said, 'You must not eat it or even touch it; if you do, you

God took out one of the man's ribs' and closed up the opening. 22 Then the LORD God made

19 Then the LORD God asked the woman

// GENESIS 3

"What have you done?"

"The serpent deceived me," she replied.
"That's why I ate it."

* Then the LORD God said to the sement.

"Because you have done this, you are cursed more than all animals, domestic and wild. You will crawl on your belly, groveling in the dust as long as you live. 5 And I will cause hostility between you and

and between your offspring and her offspring.

He will strike" your head,
and you will strike his heel."

"Then he said to the woman,

"I will sharpen the pain of your pregnancy. and in pain you will give birth.

O REFRAMING JESUS GENESIS 3:15—JESUS WILL FIGHT

REFRAMING JESUS

GENESIS 3:15-JESUS WILL FIGHT FOR HUMANITY

After the serpent leads Adam and Eve into sin. humankind is trapped in a cosmic hostage crisis. But God responds by launching a full-scale covert operation to fight for humanity. His strategy is to squash the serpent through a descendant of Eve-a Rescuer who will give his all to the struggle. And though he would be wounded, this Son of Man would ultimately be victorious in combat. God's scheme pivots on embedding Jesus behind "enemy lines," where he can battle Satan head-on and triumph against sin and death. Reporting on Jesus' assault on the serpent, the Apostle Paul describes God's war plans: "The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Jesus be with you" (Romans 16:20).
